Chapter 1 by içe cold

I felt my whole self surrounded by God's grace. I felt his love capture my heart .I felt his sovereign hand grab mine. Peace covered my soul .Shame left me. Hatred left me alone. Ya know?Jesus,God and I were so close that I never doubted if my prayers fell upon his ears. My life was good.I was redeemed.The spirit held me in place firmly.

Until I met you .Sin chained me to you.You smart lair you. You used my conscience to play games. My heart made me a fool.

You played the "Baby save me from myself" so well that I latched on to you like a hero saving an infant.

I was good to you.

Then you decided to push your tainted body into mine even when I cried and begged and said stop.

The love I felt from God was choked by sin as my whole world became self hate. You bruised my body. But who could I tell when I cursed myself .I decided to stick by you when everyone gave me good advice to leave you. Your hook were so deep.I was like a dog that had been beat hoping for some meat.
